MEETING MINUTES July 14, 2015

7:00 meeting called to order.

Officer reports:

President: Thom Wilson opened by welcoming those in attendance. One guest was present and given an opportunity to introduce himself.

Vice President: Vacant.

Coordinator Report: Past paddles report: Cal gave brief overviews for two “coffee paddles”, Terry’s Oriental “Bean” paddle, River Bends 4th of July “kids pond paddle” and Randy’s end of school year paddle.

Treasurer: Bill Sadler reported TRPC’s current balance at $2869.52. Additionally, he suggested using club resources to fund local paddle related projects. While no specific project was offered, members were encouraged to make suggestions.

Secretary: Rick Tollmann reported the minutes for our June meeting was sent to members and is also available on our web site. A motion to accept the minutes as presented was made, seconded and carried.

Communications: Chuck Kimball described several changes and updates he recently made to the web site. Cal Hansen updated members in his quest to make payment for our past due TRPC mail account. A resolution has been agreed to.

Craven County Recreation and Parks: Mark Seymour had nothing new to inform the club on. He did answer a question regarding the county waterway clean-up project. Clean-up has not yet begun due to a hold up in the grant/funding process.
